Dear John:

Thank you for your letter of 27 June 1955 with its enclosures concerning two possible sites in Maryland for the proposed CIA headquarters installation.

We have narrowed down the number of sites presently being considered for our proposed headquarters, and are studying them for the purpose of making a final selection. If none of those under this final consideration proves satisfactory, we will again study all of the various proposals that have been made, including the suggestions which you have received from

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director

While these letters to Senator Butler are similar, his office prefers that we send individual letters in each case so that they may refer them in turn to the Senator's constituents. They realize that the letters will all be similar.
